FIRST REAL NEWS FROM ROOSEVELT, WITH HIS OWN VOICE

The following dispatch is the first word that has come directly from the Roosevelt party since the departure from Mongolia on March 2. Mr. Lambert is a member of the Roosevelt party by permission of Colonel Roosevelt and has accompanied the party since it started from the jungle on the journey back to civilization.

By A. J. LAMBERT.
Special Correspondent of the Boston American, with the Roosevelt party.
Special Cable to Boston American.

KODOK, Anglo-Egyptian, Soudan, March 11.—Theodore Roosevelt, journeying in picturesque fashion by the White Nile with the members of his party, arrived here, his first stop at a settlement of any importance since he left Mongolia on March 2 for Lake No.

Yesterday the entire party took part in a hunting trip and with the usual Roosevelt luck, it was very successful. Colonel Roosevelt was delighted with the capture of a better game, and this specimen was the last that will be added to his collection of African fauna, as the hunt for the rest of his trip is over, and all but individual birds of small value have been packed away.

Old Glory Decked Buildings.
After the hunt the party visited the American Mission station at Khartoum, on the Nile, where the American flag was hoisted on the roof of the station.

Besides Colonel Roosevelt and his party, the officers of the Turkish garrison at Khartoum were at the station, and were greatly interested in every word that was said by the Roosevelt party.

In the evening Colonel Roosevelt, at the invitation of the officers, who he inspected the barracks and the officers' mess.

Anxious to See Wife.
Colonel Roosevelt is looking forward with great desire to see his wife and children at Khartoum, where they are awaiting his arrival and will allow him to see them on his return.

ALL OF EUROPEAN SECRET POLICE TO GUARD ROOSEVELT.
DOME, March 11.—A secret guard as strong as any ever known about a King in Italy. It was learned today that the government has decided to send a secret police force to guard the Roosevelt party in every country in Europe.

1,000 PITTSBURGH MEN WILL WELCOME ROOSEVELT AT SEA.
PITTSBURGH, March 11.—A thousand men will meet Theodore Roosevelt at sea and escort him back to the city.

Pepper Blamed for Neglect in Colebrook Case

District Attorney Pelletier Summons Prominent Men in Grand Jury Investigation of Faro Swindlers.

Ellis S. Pepper, national bank examiner for Middlesex County, was today ordered to report at Washington to face charges to be preferred against him by the grand jury of the Curran Murray for neglecting to discover the defalcations of George W. Adams, bookkeeper at the National City Bank of Cambridge, three months ago.

THIEFS COULD HAVE BEEN LONG AGO.

Pepper is accused by Samuel M. Hiram, the special examiner sent to Cambridge to investigate the causes of the swindling of the bank and the failure of the examiner to discover them.

The first to arrive was the British steamer Albany from South American ports, with a cargo of blues, wool, and rubber extracts. She was followed by the Irreverent from Liverpool, with 1,500 passengers and a general cargo. The St. Hugo followed, with 1,000 passengers and a general cargo. The same sort of a cargo that the Kirby had brought. The fourth arrival was the Victoria from Liverpool, with 1,000 passengers. Two Cuban steamers came next, the Francisco and the Natum, with cargoes of sugar, coffee, and other goods. The Albany and the Irreverent were followed by the Boivin from Calcutta with a rich cargo of goods.

The two sailings were the Alien from London for Glasgow, and the Warren from London for Glasgow. The Albany and the Irreverent were the last of the steamers left with record cargoes.

WANT NEW SCHOOL FOR EAST BOSTON

At a "town meeting" under the auspices of the East Boston Improvement Association, there was an emphatic declaration in favor of a new twenty-room school building in that district, and for the removal of the "frames" at the Fenwick street station of the tunnel which presents East Boston possessors of commuting with northward trains in the Washington street tunnel. Representatives hereon and there recommended a big attendance before the legislative commission on Metropolitan school matters, when a vote establishing the frame will be given a heavy major efficiency and the members of the council were out at the meeting.

CUTS THROAT AND THEN HANGS HIMSELF

Jeremiah Murphy is on the dangerous list in the Cambridge Hotel Hospital for indulging in attempts to commit suicide. Murphy, who lives in Elm street, Cambridgeport, cut his throat with a knife and plunged his head in the Hotel Hospital. Early today he got out of the hospital, without being cured, and was taken round his neck in a motor car. He was not cured, and was taken to the hospital. A nurse was placed over him.

MAUD ALLAN GIVES FAREWELL DANCES

NEW YORK, March 11.—A large and appreciative audience attended the farewell appearance of Maud Allan, the famous dancer, at Orange Hill. Among the musical works which Miss Allan "interpreted" were the "Herald Piece" movement from the "Newerborn Suite" of Tchaikovsky; Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," the "Valse Caprice" of Robert Schumann, and the more popular "The Swan" of Debussy. After the "Dance of Angels," and again after this "Dance of Angels," Miss Allan was recalled and loudly cheered.

OLIVER HARRIMAN A DEPUTY SHERIFF

NEW YORK, March 11.—Oliver Harriman, millionaire banker, president of the Worcester Harro Shaw Association, has filed at Mount Vernon his call of office as deputy sheriff of Westchester County. Mr. Harriman has several automobiles and a number of best horses, which he will use in case the sheriff wants to chase burglars.

MUSIC PLAYS DESERTED FOR PLAIN DRAMA

It is a world as well as artistic success that makes the return to her native city of Miss Berge, the actress, of the "Via Wireless" for Miss Berge's company here this time has been long marked by many charming productions with her for whom scholars who have made the only one short stay a memorable one.

Miss Berge, the French actress, the Williams, Miss Burke and other well known stars has determined to forsake the attractions of musical comedy for the higher tone of the straight drama and after a successful career in "Wood and the Prince of Wales" and other notable productions, has started abroad in a field that calls for dramatic talent and a short stay a memorable one.

Miss Berge was a familiar figure in the theatre here before she took on duty for the professional stage and her work in the theatre has been marked by her skill and her ability to make her work a success. Possessed of beauty, youth and vivacity she has made a most successful record in the theatre in which she has appeared and she has been a great success in the theatre.

Morse-Made Top Coats

There is a certain something about ours that you don't find in other makes. Call it individuality, but it's worth having. Don't be deceived in the thought that quality of fabric and pattern are the most important things to consider when buying a spring overcoat. It's the men behind the guns in the designing and cutting departments and their plans for making that give to Morse-Made garments that satisfying betterness that good dressers demand. We would be glad to "show you" when you are ready to look. Spring Overcoats, $12, $15, $20, $25 and $30.

One of the "strapped seemed" Red-Man Brand that, because of superior fitting and wearing qualities, is rapidly displacing the older 2-for-25 brands.
